ASFA Privacy Notice

Your privacy

Collection and use of personal information

ASFA collects, holds and uses personal information about you that is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to, our functions or activities as set out on the ASFA website and in our privacy policy (see below).

Disclosure of personal information

We will only disclose your personal information where reasonably necessary for, or directly related to, provision of ASFA functions or activities as set out on the ASFA website and in our privacy policy. In the course of normal business we may provide personal information to service providers including, for example, organisations that assist us in delivering training services, conferences, seminars and other events to you, and mailing houses and market research companies specifically to undertake ASFA business. If you register for an ASFA event, we may provide personal information about you to sponsors of the events, unless you ask us not to do so.

Our privacy policy

Our privacy policy sets out our approach to the management of personal information. Subject to the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth), you can have access to and seek correction of your personal information. Our privacy policy contains information about how you can do this. Our privacy policy also contains information about how you can make a complaint about a breach of privacy.
